

Please leave "our do not call" laws alone. It is the best thing to happen to private citizens in a long time. We all lead busy lives and cherish our time at home with family. Telemarketers should not have the right to impose on that whether we have done business with them in the past or not.